

What People Are Saying...

SALT MARSH
Own a piece of paradise. Seabrook Island

"...once we saw the townhomes in Salt Marsh, the decision was an easy one."

"The beauty of the island, the breadth of its world-class amenities, the strong sense of community, and its close proximity to Charleston continually reaffirm that we made the absolute right choice... (However) once we saw the townhomes in Salt Marsh, the decision was an easy one."

David A.
Seabrook Island, SC

"We've vacationed throughout the Charleston area, including Isle of Palm, Kiawah Island, Hilton Head and Mount Pleasant for a dozen years. Each location mentioned had its own charm, but Seabrook & Salt Marsh ended up being our choice to retire for many reasons."

Craig and Diane L.
Saint Charles, IL

"We've vacationed throughout the Charleston area for a dozen years... Seabrook & Salt Marsh ended up being our choice for many reasons."

"... (we) were blown away by the amenities that Seabrook had to offer."

"Our family has been vacationing on Kiawah for the last ten years... A friend had recently bought a place in (the) Salt Marsh (Townhomes at Seabrook) and suggested that we take a look at Seabrook... (we) were blown away by the amenities that Seabrook has to offer. Our impression of Kiawah was that (it is) beautiful place filled with transient vacationers, while Seabrook felt more like a community."

Les and Karen D.
Marietta, GA

"The golf courses were in great shape. In fact, (they were) better conditioned than the courses at Kiawah, and equal to the Ocean Course... (We) got a sense of 'community' (at Seabrook) rather than a 'we are renting for a week' feel."

Paul
McLean, VA

"(We) got a sense of 'community,' rather than a 'we are renting for a week' feel."

"We have lived here for three years and have been very pleased with our experience!"

"We are full-time residents of Salt Marsh. We have lived here for three years... The quality of our home and the continued care of the community by the Salt Marsh management team have proven that we made the best decision possible."
